

Nina Sloan'24 is Hillel's Program and Engagement Associate. Nina is an AMAZING chef who runs the Rauch kitchen, plans weekly events, and engages with students. Nina was born in NYC and was an Art History, Linguistics modified with English major. At Hillel she was one of the main Shabbat Chefs and Vice President of Membership at Hillel. Her favorite Jewish food is full sour kosher dill pickles which she actually made herself in the kosher kitchen one year due to the lack of pickles options in the Upper Valley!
